Dear Mr Baldwin:

Here at last is the transcript -- which I know is the last thing on your mind. But if you can correct any nonsense that has crept in by way of the transcribing I'll be grateful. And please make any revisions you think good.

I greatly enjoyed the meeting. When you are back -- and not struggling to keep from falling on the floor with fatigue and whatever bugs you had -- I'd love to resume. Meanwhile, all good wishes to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Robert Fehh Warren
