Dear Albert:

Since I can never remember it when we are together, I'll write to ask what about Selected Essays in Vintage? Several essays in the collection are very widely used as required reading -- particularly the Ancient Mariner and Pure Poetry. Don't you think the paper might carry itself?

By the way, I sent back Selected Poems today to Suzanne to get another copy made. We shall need two -- and only one was in the batch you brought me, alas.

Lovely time the other night.

Yrs,

PS. The State Department has take WSNF for translation into some 18 or 20 African and Asiatic languages. We can all retire.
