Dear Sir:

I am in the final stages of doing a book of interviews with various Negro leaders ( including James Forman and Stokely Carmichael ) to be published this winter by Random House, Inc. In the book I wish to quote a letter by Clarence H. Graham, a student at Rock Hill College, S.C., to his mother and father. I first became acquainted with the letter in an unpublished dissertation by Tom Rose, a copy of which Stokely Carmichael gave me. When I applied for formal permission to reprint, to Mr Rose, he wrote that he had taken the letter from your Student Voice, one of the early issues, and that I should address myself to you.

Can you give me permission to reprint the letter? If there is a fee, what is the amount?

Since the time for going to press approaches, I should be grateful for an early reply.

Very sincerely yours,

Robert Kenn Warren
